

Have your say at our

Research Café

Monday 31 March, 9am - 11am
Kingston University (Penryn Road)

We are committed to improving services for our patients, our local communities and our staff - one way we can do this is through clinical research.

Come and share a coffee with us, meet our research team, hear from clinicians and patients about their experiences, and share your views.

Spaces are limited - register before 24 March to secure your place.
